Subject: Response to NAS Comment: dose-response models

Tom, Jennifer and I have developed a revised response to the NAS comments on our dose-response modeling. It incorporates your previous comments and also is aligned with my revision of the entire section which focuses on the Executive Summary. If you think it is adequate, the next step will be to send it to the NCI authors so they can check it for accuracy and provide us with the clarifications we request. Otherwise we can discuss it with you if you like.

Regards, Barbara
